SESSION 1

TOGETHER FOR GOOD

Together for Good

"The divorce rate would be lower if instead of marrying for better or worse people would marry for good."

- Ruby Dee

● Together for _____

● Together for _____ good

"Both men and women live longer, happier, healthier and wealthier lives when they are married. Unmarried co-habitation doesn't cut it. Cohabitation does not bring the benefits - in physical health, wealth, and emotional wellbeing - that marriage does. And, married people have both more and better sex than do their unmarried counterparts."

- Linda Waite, *The Case for Marriage

● Together for _____ good

"I am convinced that if we as a society work diligently in every other area of life and neglect the family, it would be analogous to straightening deck chairs on the Titanic."

- Stephen Covey

● Together for _____ good

I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.

John 17:23

Marriage is a good gift from a good God

TOGETHER FOR GOOD TOOLS

Dealing with Drift - Staying connected

"Marriage, ultimately, is the practice of becoming passionate friends."

- Harville Hendrix

● _____

Formula for health:

- 15 minutes a day (non-logistical talk)
- 1 evening/half day a week
- 1 day a month

"If a married couple with children has fifteen minutes of uninterrupted, non-logistical, non-problem-solving talk every day, I would put them in the top 5% of all married couples. It's an extraordinary achievement."

- Bill Doherty, Take Back Your Marriage

● _____

"Ultimately the bond of all companionship, whether in marriage or in friendship, is conversation."

(Source: Gottman, J.M., & Levenson, R.W. 1992)

their needs, that it may benefit those who listen.*

Ephesians 4:29

3. Ask your partner what they need from you

"The first duty of love is to listen."

- Paul Tillich

YOUR TURN...

Choose a question below. Ask your spouse. Listen carefully. Switch. Repeat.

How have we changed as a couple in the last 5 years?

What would you like our life to be like in 5 years?

Describe one time in our life where you felt especially close to me.

What made you feel that way?

SESSION 3

TOGETHER FOR GOOD TOOLS

Dealing with Differences - Managing conflict

Conflict is inevitable.

A natural by-product of two individuals trying to live together for good.

Conflict starts with a _____

It only takes a spark, remember, to set off a forest fire. A careless or wrongly placed word out of your mouth can do that.

James 3:5

THE SPARKS

- work-family balance
- parenting issues
- extended family
- finances
- sexual issues
- unrealistic expectations
- scheduling issues - last minute changes, lateness, forgetting commitments
- feeling neglected
- feeling disrespected
- feeling unappreciated
- feeling manipulated
- feeling embarrassed
- jealousy
- resistance to change
- passive-aggressive behavior
- hurtful words
- silence

YOUR TURN...

Check off the ones that spark conflict in your relationship.

First response

Understand it...

Ask yourself...

Tell yourself...

My spouse is not my enemy

Managing conflict

Choose your bucket.

Water

- are able to express what they need
- believe the best
- think win-win
- focus on the issue
- don't keep score
- humble
- honest
- engage

Gas

- can only express anger/sadness
- expect the worst
- think win-lose
- make it personal
- keep score
- defensive
- hidden
- stonewall

YOUR TURN...

Put a check mark by any that are true of you most or all of the time.

Don't let fuel accumulate.

"Conflict is the price smart couples pay for intimacy."
- Drs. Les and Leslie Parrott

Put out the fire with forgiveness.

"A happy marriage is the union of two good forgivers."
- Ruth Bell Graham

Make allowance for each other's faults, and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others.

Colossians 3:13

seeking forgiveness

Be willing to say you were wrong.

Accept responsibility.

Be willing to say you are sorry.

Recognize and empathize with your spouse's feelings (hurt, rejection, disrespected...).

Be willing to change.

Be willing to ask for forgiveness.

*Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you.
Ephesians 4:32*

"I was wrong about _____
I'm sorry for making you feel _____
I'm going to try not to do that again.
Please forgive me."

granting forgiveness

Do it internally first.

Decide to forgive. Ask God for help.

Do it specifically.

Do it generously.

Remind yourself of a time when you needed to be forgiven. Offer the same gift to your spouse.

Do it again.

If the feelings resurface, internally reaffirm forgiveness.
Remind yourself that the offence was forgiven.

*Love keeps no record of wrongs.
1 Corinthians 13:5*

"I forgive you for _____ I felt _____, but I know I've done things that have made you feel that way too. I am choosing to let this go and I won't hold it against you any more."

YOUR TURN...

Think of a recent conflict:

What were the sparks?

Which buckets did you use?

Is the fire out?

Forgiveness?

SESSION 4

TOGETHER FOR GOOD - A GOOD GIFT

“The goal of sex is the big O (and it ain’t orgasm). It’s Oneness. Loving the whole person, not just the body parts.”
- Tim Gardner, Sacred Sex

Sex is a _____ from a _____

Deeper Issues

- The 3 A's

“It is not love to ignore your spouse’s sin, or brokenness, or immaturity.”
- John Eldredge, Love and War

Sexual drives are strong, but marriage is strong enough to contain them and provide for a balanced and fulfilling sexual life in a world of sexual disorder. The marriage bed must be a place of mutuality—the husband seeking to satisfy his wife, the wife seeking to satisfy her husband. Marriage is not a place to “stand up for your rights.” Marriage is a decision to serve the other, whether in bed or out. Abstaining from sex is permissible for a period of time if you both agree to it, and if it’s for the purposes of prayer and fasting—but only for such times. Then come back together again.

1 Corinthians 7:2-6

SESSION 5

TOGETHER FOR GOOD - A GREATER GOOD

A cord of three strands is not easily broken.
Ecclesiastes 4:12 (HCSB)

Marriage is a great good...but there is a greater good.

“There is a God-shaped vacuum in the heart of every person, and it can never be filled by any created thing. It can only be filled by God, made known through Jesus Christ.”
- Blaise Pascal, Pensées

The decision to follow Jesus changes everything.

● _____

● _____

“You become more that person God had in mind when he thought you up. You don’t just become holier. You become you-ier. You will change; God wants you to become a ‘new creation’.”

- John Ortberg, The Me I Want to Be

● _____

“Being ‘married for a mission’ can revitalize a lot of marriages in which the partners think they suffer from a lack of compatibility; my suspicion is that many of these couples actually suffer from a lack of purpose.”

- Gary Thomas, A Lifelong Love

Growing Together For Good

There is only one way to be _____

I am the way, and the truth and the life, the only way to the Father is through me.

John 14:6

There are different ways to _____

Spiritual Pathways

I feel closest to God when I'm surrounded by what God has made – the mountains, forests, lakes, sea, gardens, a sunset. Experiencing God's beauty and creativity in nature is more moving to me than learning new concepts about God, participating in a formal religious service or in social causes.

I feel closest to God when I am learning about God. I crave uninterrupted study time - reading God's word or good Christian books - and welcome the opportunity to share what I've learned by teaching or participating in discussions or debates.

I feel closest to God when I feel like I have "touched souls" with another person or a group of people, when we have shared deeply and honestly with one another. I feel like I learn more about God when I am studying, fellowshiping and worshipping with others.

I feel closest to God when I am with a friend going through a difficult time, helping others in my community, volunteering at a local shelter or going on a mission trip. It means more to me to nurse someone to health, bring them a meal or repair their house than it does to teach a class or go on a prayer retreat.

I feel closest to God when I am involved in worship. I am energized, moved and nourished in deep ways through music and corporate acts of worship. Being with other believers, raising our voices together, praising our awesome God...it's a taste of Heaven!

I feel closest to God in solitude and silence. If I can escape for 30 minutes (or more) a day to a quiet place to pray, journal, read God's word, to be alone and uninterrupted with God, I am very happy. I come away refreshed and strengthened.

I feel closest to God when I am standing up for justice and truth. I feel God's pleasure when I am trying to help right wrongs, meet the needs of the poor and marginalized and make the world more like God intended it to be.

YOUR TURN...

Share your rankings with your spouse.
